The governing body of each Texas municipality exercises exclusive original jurisdiction over electric utility rates, operations, and services provided by an electric utility (whether privately owned or publicly owned) within its city or town limits, unless the municipality has surrendered this jurisdiction to the Public Utility Commission of Texas. The Commission hears de novo appeals from the decision of such municipalities. These municipal authorities would be State agencies as defined by PURPA and, thus, have responsibilities under PURPA identical to those of a State regulatory authority.

The municipally owned utilities listed below are not under the commission's original ratemaking jurisdiction:

West Texas Gas, Inc.

The governing body of each Texas municipality exercises exclusive original jurisdiction over gas utility rates, operations, and services provided by a gas utility within its city or town limits, subject to appellate review by the Railroad Commission of Texas; The Railroad Commission of Texas has original jurisdiction outside municipal limits. These municipal authorities would be State agencies as defined by PURPA and thus have
regulatory authority.

The following covered utilities within the State of Texas are not regulated by the Railroad Commission of Texas.
(The Railroad Commission of Texas does not have original jurisdiction to set rates for municipally owned gas utilities; the Railroad Commission's appellate authority extends only to those customers of municipally owned gas utilities who reside outside the municipal limits, and is invoked by petition.)
